

Im start on the last year of high school, when i see a presentation from one of my teacher's and just think "i wanna do this", im start to learn about it, and with this i can get my first job on this area, webmaster of my faculty on UNAM (my university) ... I think also that in many countrys the flash community concept is not familiar, for example, in Mexico every day we meet new flashers/flexers who say me "awesome really in mexico we have a AUG WOW how can I join them? ...
