

In those days Mexico City was the most beautiful city on Earth. The Indian Saint Yoganada visited it and described it the floating gardens of Xochimilco and the broad tree lined avenues and the crystal clear air allowing views of snow ... One of them was a carpet salesman and the other a vulcanologist working for the UNAM and Cenapred. We saw Popocatepetl explode. It looked beautiful and harmed no one. Orange boulders fountained up and cascaded back down onto the sides of ... Donkeyshott and Xuitlacoche - <http://xuitlacoche.blogspot.com/>
